Greetings Friends

Around the World, we are calling on the Israeli Mossad & IDF Leadership to "Arrest Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's NOW!"

They should also Arrest all the Israeli Cabinet and close down the Knesset Parliament, and order New Fresh Elections.

The above people should be charged with "Enemies of The States of Israel" & "The Palestinian People"

They should also be charged with "Assault and Battery" and "Genocidal Murder" of "The Jewish People In Israel" and "The Palestinian People"

If the Israeli Mossad and IDF Leadership refuse.

I will be starting a Website called "NO Zionist Jews For Australia" .com

I will explain now.

Everybody will have heard in the lying Mainstream Kharza News about Israel and USA threatening Iran over NON – Existent Nuclear Weapons Building.

A Report is to follow and added with this letter, proving Iran is NOT Building Nuclear Weapons and thus Israel and America lying, kicking up a stink over nothing.

As a ruse for their Real Goals, Ambitions, Plans for Israel to be the stole ruler over the Whole Middle East.

But I digress people back to Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's

What these scumbags haven't told the Jews in Israel or the Palestinians, Israel is heavily infected with DU over all the countryside.

Thus has infected every single Jew & Palestinian alike, which means down the track their children and their children when they come to have children will be producing "FREAKS"

AMERICAN SOLDIERS RETURNING SICK FROM IRAQ WITH DEPLETED URANIUM POISONING ARE POISONING THEIR WIVES -- THIS STORY FOCUSES ON ONE FAMILY WHOSE BABY WAS JUST BORN WITH DEFORMITIES!

<http://www.cuttingedge.org/News/n1965.cfm>

People you get the idea, you can read these stories above and go do some research for yourself.

Anyway as we all know, under United Snakes of America, direction, with AIPAC the Zionist Jewish Lobby in Washington DC and the little snappy dog Israel in the back ground snapping at USA feet, do this, do that or else.

SEARCH FOR TRUTH

United States of America invaded Afghanistan & Iraq, and are in Yemen, Somalia, Pakistan and now heading for Africa.

So Lets Look At The Countries Again: -

Afghanistan
Iraq
Pakistan
Yemen
Somalia
Libya

Now add up all the "BOMBS" with DU coated on the outside of these Bombs, the DU fall out from these Bombs have not only gone into the soil of these countries.

But up into the Atmosphere and the winds have taken allot of this fall out has spread over Israel.

Back tracking to the Christmas Fires in Israel 2010 the Fires stirred up all this DU that has settled all over Israel, which means they have been infected twice now with DU poisoning.

Who are you going to blame for this Zionist Jews?

It wasn't Iran that has been pushing USA to do your bidding for you so Israel can rule all over the Middle East.

It was Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's, so it looks like these Zionist have got their just rewards.

They and their backers were so "Eye Teeth Jealous" for control over all the Middle East Resources and Countries in true fact what they have done is killed every single "Jew" and "Palestinian" breeding in the future.

At the end of the day who will win?

The 7 Jewish Families at the top of the Pyramid who control the money supply throughout the World.

The Security and Military Industrial Complex

The Zionist Jewish Bankers on Wall Street / London Bankers and Brokerage Firms.

The Oil Cartels

The Other Big Corporations.

So in other words the same people, Cabal's & Cartels that were behind WW1 & WW11 and behind every other War have used the Zionist Jews, stirred them into action to achieve their goals, ambitions, objectives, plans.

And the dumb ass Zionist Jews in Israel couldn't see they were being pawns & used to these peoples purposes and plans.

Israel & The Zionist Jews Could have had It All In The Middle East

When history is written and I am writing history now, the Zionist Jews in Israel and around the World could have had it all.

But Zionist Jews aren't very smart, I will explain.

How Israel Could have Been A Power House in The Middle East & Beyond!

These are just our thoughts of how we would of made Israel Great for all Mankind & Humans living in the Middle East.

- 1) Declare the Whole Middle East Nuclear Weapons FREE Zone.
- 2) Israel has mastered Nuclear Power, we would join with the Iranians and offer to build Nuclear Power Stations for other countries in the Middle East
- 3) We would take a study tour of China and see what progress they have made for the next generation of Power Stations "Fusion Power" which the Chinese have mastered.
- 4) We would have made peace with the Palestinians declared our borders, and declared One Country "Israel" with Two States one Jewish – one Palestinian, with Israel and the Jewish State the only one to form a Military – but with the Palestinians allowed to have their own Police Force.
- 5) Both State Governments to meet every two months to make plans and talk about where the country is at, where they are going for the future and other day to day issues.
- 6) Tel a viv Declared as the Capital of the Jewish State, Ramayana Declared as the Capital of Palestine, with Jerusalem declared as the Holy City for Jews and Muslims and Christians alike, with a 5 year rule under Jews, transferring over to a 5 year rule by the Muslims, then switch again.

SEARCH FOR TRUTH

Rule = Council Rule only, looking after the streets, roads, rubbish collection, parking etc Policing supplied by the State who is in charge of the security at the time.

Agriculture & Farming

A country's ability to feed itself is very important, and lets be truthful have you ever seen a Jew do hard manual labour?

That being said the Palestinians are known to be hard workers, good farmers so we would support Palestinian Farming, and give more farmland to the Palestinians.

E.G Olive Groves – Palestinians are known to have grown good Olive Groves – Farms, in support of them we would build a factory to produce "Olive Oil" and not only sell this in the local economy but export it to other countries near by.

We would also supply seedlings for them to grow other "Fresh Vegetables and Fruits" to be sold at markets daily in the two States.

We would also open up a factory where excess food could be packaged and ship over night to surrounding countries ready for the next days trade at the markets.

Banking – Commerce – Stock Exchange

Banks in Tel a viv would be allowed to offer generous interest rates to investors in the banks

A Stock Exchange in Tel a viv would be opened and all the top 500 – 1,000 companies in the Middle East would be encouraged to register on

A secondary board would also exist for up and coming companies, and research & development companies to register and also try to raise capital.

More companies would be offered around the World, not to shut down and relocate to Israel, but open up another Office or factory in Israel and start producing, making products, goods and services of which we would sell to other Middle eastern countries.

Tourism

Tourism is a big employment industry employing allot of people, we would look at the Hotel – Motel Industry and offer big chain Hotels to open up places.

University and College Training

We would open up and have 3 –4 Universities in Tel a viv and One – two in Palestine offering courses to Middle Eastern students to come and study.

College Trade Training

We would open up Trade Schools, one in Tel a viv and one in Palestine going back to basic's teaching Plumbing, Carpentry, Electricians, Welding, Mechanic's and other basic trades

And become a hub for trade training for all the Middle East.

You get the idea people, now consider the above not only would the above set young Jewish and Palestinian children up for the future, but would also give them a job.

With a job, they can then go out and buy a car and other things and from there buy a house etc.

But what has Israeli leaders given you people of Israel both Jew and Palestinian?

Nothing except

War

Murdering

Killing

More War

And More War

And remember it wasn't Iran or any Arab country that gave you this, it was your political leaders and radical Jewish Religious Leaders that gave you what you have now

DU poisoning with generations to be infected and their kids in the future to have "FREAK Children Born"

And remember friends if America drops that "BIG Bunker Buster Bomb" on Iran Nuclear Factories, now they are up and running producing Nuclear Material for their "Power Stations" they are building.

Where do you all think that fall out DU is going to go?????

You guessed right friend all over Israel to give both "Jews" and "Palestinians" a third dose of DU poisoning.

Where the fuck is Benjamin Netanyahu's brains?

Where the fuck is his Cabinet Ministers brains?

What these "Murdering – Mad – Mental Nut Cases" have brought a Holocaust upon all people of Israel and the Palestinians alike.

Like we said at the beginning the Israeli Mossad and IDF Senior Management should arrest all these people Now!

Special Report - Intel Shows Iran Not Nuclear "Threat"

So if Iran does not have a Bomb, and is not producing a Bomb, and has declared they don't want Nuclear Weapons.

Why is Israel and America lying about Iran wanting to get a Bomb and use that "LIE" to wanting to attack Iran for?

Maybe its to control and steal their Oil & Gas?

Maybe its to control their Federal Reserve Bank?

Maybe its to force the country into debt to the IMF and World Bank

What ever the case is, "If Intel shows they are not producing a Bomb" why is Israel and USA threatening Iran for?

Remember Zionist Jews all that fall out from this "Big Bomb" USA is planning to drop all the DU fall out will go over Israel and infect you people not us here in Australia

The Road to Disaster

Tehran does not have a bomb, has not decided to build one, and is probably years away from having a deliverable nuclear warhead.

Special Report - Intel Shows Iran Not Nuclear "Threat"

March 23, 2012 "Reuters" - The United States, European allies and even Israel generally agree on three things about Iran's nuclear program

Tehran does not have a bomb, has not decided to build one, and is probably years away from having a deliverable nuclear warhead.

Those conclusions, drawn from extensive interviews with current and former U.S. and European officials with access to intelligence on Iran, contrast starkly with the heated debate surrounding a possible Israeli strike on Tehran's nuclear facilities.

"They're keeping the soup warm but they are not cooking it," a U.S. administration official said.

Reuters has learned that in late 2006 or early 2007, U.S. intelligence intercepted telephone and email communications in which Mohsen Fakhrizadeh, a leading figure in Iran's nuclear program, and other scientists complained that the weaponization program had been stopped.

That led to a bombshell conclusion in a controversial 2007 National Intelligence Estimate: American spy agencies had "high confidence" that Iran halted its nuclear weapons program in the fall of 2003.

Current and former U.S. officials say they are confident that Iran has no secret uranium-enrichment site outside the purview of U.N. nuclear inspections.

They also have confidence that any Iranian move toward building a functional nuclear weapon would be detected long before a bomb was made.

These intelligence findings are what underpin President Barack Obama's argument that there is still time to see whether economic sanctions will compel Iran's leaders to halt any program.

(See the Lies People? If they don't have a bomb and not producing one and no intentions how can they halt any program they haven't got)

The Obama administration, relying on a top-priority intelligence collection program and after countless hours of debate, has concluded that Iranian leaders have not decided whether to actively construct a nuclear weapon, current and former officials said.

There is little argument, however, that Iran's leaders have taken steps that would give them the option of becoming a nuclear-armed power.

Iran has enriched uranium, although not yet of sufficient quantity or purity to fuel a bomb, and has built secret enrichment sites, which were acknowledged only when unmasked.

Iran has, in years past, worked on designing a nuclear warhead, the complicated package of electronics and explosives that would transform highly enriched uranium into a fission bomb.

And it is developing missiles that could in theory launch such a weapon at a target in enemy territory.

There are also blind spots in U.S. and allied agencies' knowledge. A crucial unknown is the intentions of Iran's Supreme Leader, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei.

Another question is exactly how much progress Iran made in designing a warhead before mothballing its program.

The allies disagree on how fast Iran is progressing toward bomb-building ability the U.S. thinks progress is relatively slow; the Europeans and Israelis believe it's faster.

U.S. officials assert that intelligence reporting on Iran's nuclear program is better than it was on Iraq's weapons of mass destruction, which proved to be non-existent but which President George W. Bush and his aides used to make the case for the 2003 invasion.

That case and others, such as the U.S. failure to predict India's 1998 underground nuclear test, illustrate the perils of divining secrets about others' weapons programs.

"The quality of intelligence varies from case to case," a U.S. administration official said. Intelligence on North Korea and Iraq was more limited, but there was "extraordinarily good intelligence" on Iran, the official said.

Israel, which regards a nuclear Iran as an existential threat, has a different calculation. It studies the same intelligence and timetable, but sees a closing window of opportunity to take unilateral military action and set back Iran's ambitions.

Israel worries that Iran will soon have moved enough of its nuclear program underground -- or spread it far enough around the country -- as to make it virtually impervious to a unilateral Israeli attack, creating what Defense Minister Ehud Barak recently referred to as a "zone of immunity."

While Israel would not be able to launch an effective offensive in this analysis, the U.S., with its deeper-penetrating bombs and in-air refuelling capability, believes it could still get results from a military strike.

Israel has not publicly defined how or when Iran would enter this phase of a nuclear weapons program.

Barak said last month that relying on an ability to detect an order by Khamenei to build a bomb "oversimplifies the issue dramatically

CONFIDENCE IN INTELLIGENCE

U.S. confidence that Iran stopped its nuclear weaponization program in 2003 traces back to a stream of intelligence obtained in 2006 or early 2007, which dramatically shifted the view of spy agencies.

(What they don't say is how under Bill Clinton, they offered Iran plans, designs but with a few things missing to build a bomb on the black market, so Bill Clinton and the CIA pocketed Millions on the side selling non – existent weapon to Iran which was missing parts.)

Sources familiar with the intelligence confirmed the intercept of Fakhrizadeh's communications.

The United States had both telephone and email intercepts in which Iranian scientists complained about how the leadership ordered them to shut down the program in 2003, a senior European official said.

U.S. officials said they are very confident that the intercepts were authentic - and not disinformation planted by Iran.

Iran has been a high-priority intelligence target for years.

Sometimes you get lucky, and sometimes we really are good," said Thomas Fingar, who was chairman of the National Intelligence Council when it compiled the 2007 intelligence estimate.

As usual the Americans play both sides, one administration supply weapons the next make Wars with countries, but don't say how they sold the weapons in the first place.
